

Home School agreement

The responsibilities of parents/guardians/carers of the pupils

- To support the school in the standards of work and behaviour we aspire to achieve, by encouraging your child to take an interest in his/her work and to work to the best of their ability in all aspects of school life.
- To support the school's policies and guidelines for behaviour.
- To make the school aware of any concerns or problems that might affect your child's work or behaviour.
- To share books on a regular basis with your child to encourage them to enjoy reading.
- To support your child in homework and other opportunities for home learning.
- To respond to parent's evening invitations and other discussions about your child's progress and the curriculum.
- To return the comments slip on your child's Annual Report.
- Respond to communication requests in a timely fashion.

Responsibilities of the School towards its pupils

- We will care for your child's safety and happiness.
- Encourage children to do their best and be kind at all times.
- Ensure, to the best of our ability, that your child achieves his/her full potential as a valued member of the school community.
- Provide a balanced curriculum and meet the individual needs of the child.
- Achieve high standards of work and behaviour through building good relationships and developing a sense of responsibility.
- Keep you informed about general school matters and your child's progress in particular.
- Be open and welcoming at all times and offer opportunities for you to become involved in the daily life of the school.

Most curriculum and management areas have Policies which, on request, are available for parents to read.
